Tiber Creek Group Taps Capitol Hill Veteran Dan Zawitoski, Valued Addition to Premier Energy, Health Care and Technology Practices

Washington, DC – Tiber Creek Group, a Washington D.C.-based bipartisan government relations firm, announced the addition of Dan Zawitoski. Zawitoski will immediately strengthen Tiber Creek Group’s ability to serve its expanding client base and deliver premium counsel and results to clients across policy sectors, particularly to its growing energy, health care and technology practices.

“Dan’s deep experience and expertise within the energy, health and tech sectors will ensure he will be a strong advocate for our clients on day one,” said Jonathon Jones, Managing Partner, Tiber Creek Group. “We look forward to having Dan on board to help our clients successfully navigate an ever-changing policy landscape.”

Dan Zawitoski is a veteran of Capitol Hill who most recently served as Chief of Staff for Congressman Scott Peters (D-CA-50). During his decade-long tenure with Rep. Peters, Dan helped the Congressman establish and solidify his reputation as a pragmatic problem solver. He served as a key advisor on all policy areas, including trade, student loans, health care, energy, and technology. Dan served as Rep. Peters’ chief advisor within his leadership roles with the New Democrat Coalition. In this position, he assisted in mentoring new staff and helping the group achieve key policy and legislative priorities. His leadership position within Rep. Peters’ office allowed him to develop deep relationships with key Members of Congress and industry groups.

“An original member of my staff, Dan has done almost every job for me and has done so successfully,” said Congressman Scott Peters (D-CA-50). “I know he’ll do the same at Tiber Creek. He is a natural leader with great instincts, a tremendous work ethic, and a keen policy sense. I have relied on his counsel for ten years and consider him a friend. I wish him great success in his future pursuits; he’ll be missed.”

“Since 2013, Dan has represented Congressman Scott Peters with the utmost professionalism and expertise, proving to be a key ally and a powerful advocate for the life sciences community of California,” said Joe Panetta, President & CEO of Biocom California. “From ensuring increased funding and incentives for scientific research and development to working to advance innovation in biofuels, Dan has been a champion himself for bioscience innovation and supported every sector of our industry. We at Biocom California will miss his insight and friendship, but we do not doubt that he will continue to be a leader as he enters the next chapter of his career.”

“Smart, connected, politically adept, and always insightful, Dan is a huge get for Tiber Creek,” said Jim Kessler, Executive Vice President for Policy of Third Way. “I learn something every time I talk to Dan. He is a finisher, translating policy goals into successful outcomes. He’s been an essential partner to centrist thought leader Scott Peters. He’ll be a star at Tiber Creek.”

“The New Democrat Coalition occupies a critical place in the Democratic Caucus, advocating for pro-growth policies while staying true to our Democratic values,” said Andy Flick, Executive Director of the New Democrat Coalition. “Throughout his career, Dan has been an important leader in our Coalition, helping to successfully drive our policy and political priorities. We will miss his insight and wisdom and his dedication to mentoring new staff, young and old. There is no doubt he’ll be a key asset at Tiber Creek.

Zawitoski is a graduate of Colby College and earned a Master’s in Political Science from San Diego State University.
