Tiber Creek Group Adds Senate Chief of Staff, Former Biden Administration Official Jan Beukelman

Washington, DC – Tiber Creek Group, a Washington-based bipartisan government relations firm, today announced the addition of Jan Beukelman, a former U.S. Senate chief of staff and senior Biden Administration official. Beukelman will leverage extensive experience across Capitol Hill and the Biden Administration to provide immediate value to Tiber Creek Group's robust client base in a number of practice areas.

"Jan's experience in both the House and Senate coupled with his time in the Administration creates a unique and invaluable perspective for Tiber Creek's clients," said Jonathon Jones, Managing Partner, Tiber Creek Group. "Jan is an exceptional addition to our firm and we look forward to the perspective he will bring to clients on a wide range of issues."

Beukelman has spent more than a decade on Capitol Hill and most recently served as Chief of Staff for Tom Carper (D-DE), who currently serves as chairman of the U.S. Senate Committee on Environment and Public Works, a senior member of the Senate Finance Committee, and a senior member of the Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs Committee.

"From campaigns and confirmations to committee work, Jan's experience gives him a deep understanding of how Washington works and how policies are made," said Senator Tom Carper (D-DE). "He has served as a critical member of our team in several important roles for years and was instrumental in setting and advancing major policy priorities. I am confident that his legislative expertise, experience and relationships in the House, Senate and administration will serve him well in this next chapter. We will miss him greatly in Carpertown."

Prior to serving as chief of staff, Beukelman represented the Office of the United States Trade Representative (USTR) as Assistant USTR for Congressional Affairs. In this role, he worked closely with Members of the House and Senate on both sides of the aisle on trade policy affecting a number of industry stakeholders. During his time on the Biden-Harris transition team, Beukelman successfully led confirmation efforts for U.S. Trade Representative Katherine Tai.

During his time in the House of Representatives, Beukelman served as a senior legislative assistant for former Representative Jim Matheson (D-UT), a member of the House Energy and Commerce and Financial Services Committees, and a legislative assistant for former Representative Dennis Moore (D-KS), also a member of the Financial Services Committee.

Beukelman is a graduate of Grinnell College and earned a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science.
