

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 26, 2024

Tiber Creek Group Welcomes Senior Administration Official Nikole Burroughs to Bolster Bipartisan Appropriations Practice

Washington, DC – Tiber Creek Group, a Washington D.C.-based bipartisan government relations firm, announced today the addition of Nikole Burroughs. Burroughs brings extensive international development and foreign affairs experience in addition to a deep knowledge of the federal appropriations process that will strengthen and expand Tiber Creek Group’s service offerings.

“Nikole’s unique skill set covering appropriations, foreign relations, and sustainability policy at the highest levels of government will benefit practice areas and clients across Tiber Creek Group,” said Jonathon Jones, Tiber Creek Group. “Nikole has successfully shepherded hundreds of billions of dollars through the appropriations process and will immediately augment our bipartisan capabilities as the fiscal year 2025 appropriations cycle ramps up.”

Burroughs joins Tiber Creek Group from the United States Agency for International Development (USAID), where she most recently served as deputy chief of staff overseeing investments and coordinating with U.S. Senate and House offices on respective appropriations and foreign affairs committees. While at USAID, Burroughs helped spearhead Agency priorities for the FY23 budget, securing supplemental funding support to address the global food security crisis and funding for development and humanitarian assistance in Ukraine. Burroughs will join Tiber Creek Group’s Matt Leffingwell, former chief of staff to House Appropriations Committee Chairwoman Rep. Kay Granger (R-TX), in leading the firm’s best-in-class appropriations practice.

Before USAID, Burroughs served as a subcommittee staff director for the House Committee on Foreign Affairs and a senior advisor to former Senate Appropriations Committee Chairman Patrick Leahy (D-VT). Nikole led the Subcommittees on Indo-Pacific and Oversight & Accountability for the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, and supported the State, Foreign Operations, and Related Programs Subcommittee for the Senate Committee on Appropriations. Burroughs also served previously as a senior advisor for legislative and government affairs for the International Rescue Committee (IRC) and a senior advisor to the Office of the Deputy Secretary of State for Management and Resources at the U.S. Department of State.

Burroughs is a graduate of the Fletcher School at Tufts University, the College of Europe, and the University of Vermont.

Press Contact: Andrew Fimka – Email: andrew@narrativedc.com

About Tiber Creek Group

Tiber Creek Group is a premier, bipartisan government relations firm providing specialized talent and service offerings to deliver custom advocacy solutions for industry leaders. For more information, please visit TiberCreekGroup.com.

###